

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences--Plan of Study for Philosophy Majors

Consult with major advisor while completing this plan. An approved final plan of study must be filed with the Registrar during the first four weeks of classes of the semester in which a student expects to graduate. Also within those first four weeks, apply for graduation on PeopleSoft.

The Major Group: At least 24 credits in courses numbered 2000 or above. Students must have a grade point average of 2.0 or better in the major group. Only quality points and credits earned at the University of Connecticut may be used to meet this requirement, unless the dean of the college grants exception. Courses on Pass/Fail may not be used to meet General Education, Major, or Related requirements. Circle the course for the W in the major.

Both of the following:

Philosophy 2221 (Ancient)

Philosophy 2222 (17th & 18th C.):

Two of the following:

2210 (Metaphysics & Epistemology)

2211 (Logic)

2212 (Philosophy of Science)

2215 (Ethics)

Four 2000's level (or above) philosophy courses in addition to the four checked above:

The Related Courses: (Related courses must be numbered 2000 or above). At least 12 credits in courses closely related to the subject matter of the student's major but outside his major department constitutes the related group.

Minors in other departments (if any): You need to file a plan of study for each minor.
